Shanti Sahyog Center for Peace & Conflict Resolution

Community Centre, 1st Floor
DDA Flats, Kalkaji, New Delhi-19

Shanti Sahyog Centre for Peace & Conflict Resolution (a unit of Shanti Sahyog) is a developing think tank, research and advocacy organization, that works to realize Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi's vision of a Nonviolent World Order, by creating public awareness of nonviolence as knowledge critical to human survival. It works for the promotion of nonviolent conflict resolution, peace education, citizen diplomacy and peace programs in India and abroad.

Current Programs:

1. The Centre organizes seminars/conferences on peace issues;
2. Conducts workshops on Understanding & Applying Gandhi Today; Resolving Conflict in Relationships through Nonviolence and related topics. Our expertise here is to focus on the following:
  - Understanding Conflict
  - Understanding Nonviolence
  - Why Choose Nonviolence?
  - How to use Nonviolence in our personal, professional and political lives.
3. Holds short training programs on Nonviolent Conflict Resolution for educational institutions, government, corporates and civil society.
4. Is starting an International Initiative for a 'WORLD BEYOND WAR' celebrating GANDHI- 150 YEARS (2 October 2018 to 2 October 2020) Please visit our website for this Initiative and strategies to implement it: www.shantisahyog.org

Planned Activities

Committed to UN SDG 16:

The Center will conduct comparative and contemporary studies of types and causes of conflict in India and neighboring countries. Current methods of conflict resolution will be critically analyzed and strategies/remedies recommended. Besides developing a peace studies curriculum and teaching it, the Center will host visiting fellows, interact with eminent leaders in peacemaking and partner with universities and institutions working in peace and conflict studies.
