An Associate Professor of Philosophy, Delhi University, India, from 1979 to 2013, Suman Khanna Aggarwal obtained her doctoral degree on Gandhian thought in 1978 and has since translated her theoretical knowledge into practical action by founding the Gandhian NGO – Shanti Sahyog that works in 17 South Delhi slums (Kalkaji/ Govindpuri are) and Tughlakabad Village, New Delhi. She has also extended her understanding of Gandhi’s ideology to her work as a Peace Researcher and Activist. To promote Gandhi’s legacy of Nonviolent Conflict Resolution and vision of a World beyond War, she has set up Shanti Sahyog Centre for Peace & Conflict Resolution. She has authored three books and published several papers/articles in reputed journals/books on Gandhian principles.

She has completed three Post-Doctoral Research Projects in Canada, Sweden and India

As a Gandhian scholar, she has lectured extensively and taught courses on Gandhi in North America, Europe, Middle East and Asia, for instance, John Hopkins University - USA, McMaster University - Canada, Bradford University - UK, Scandinavian/Nordic Universities, and Al Quds University - Palestine/Israel, amongst others.

A plenary speaker at international conferences, she strongly believes that individual social responsibility, dictated by one’s conscience, has the power to bring out social and political transformation.

She conducts Trainings & Workshops on Gandhian Philosophy / Nonviolent Conflict Resolution on a regular basis.

She is a recipient of the following Awards for her community service of the underprivileged and her promotion of nonviolent conflict resolution:

2020 - The Rotary Vocational Award

2020 - National IHRO Women Empowerment Award
